

The K-LOVE radio station provides good entertainment to listen too. The loss of the station would be devastating. We do not get many local stations that come in that good. This station has made a major change in my son's self-esteem and life. Our community would lose much if it were not available. Please keep it on the air.